The cry, 'I thirst!' helps us to understand three things about Jesus Christ:

1. Jesus is a MAN

What happened to Jesus before he cried out these words?

How do these words show us that Jesus was a man?

What do these words teach us about living in this world?

2. Jesus is the MESSIAH

How do we know that the writer didn't just pretend that Jesus knew how he would die?

What does the Old Testament tell us about the Messiah?

Why was it important that Jesus should say, 'I thirst'?

What do these words teach us about living as a Christian?

3. Jesus is the SINNER'S SUBSTITUTE

What does the Bible teach us about the punishment of hell?

What does this cry teach us about man's greatest need?
