We have come to the end of our series on Christ's cries from the cross this morning as we think about his seventh cry.

1. A cry of authority

How does this cry help us to see that the death of Christ was not an accident?

2. A cry of confidence

How could Jesus be sure of his Father's love since he had moments earlier complained about being forsaken by him?

How can Christians have confidence in the love of God for them?

3. A cry of completeness

God rested on the seventh day after the work of creating the world; what does this 7th cry tell us about Christ's work?

There were seven cries from the cross. What does this tell us about each one of those cries?
