Introduction

Boaz is presented to us as a 'type' of Jesus Christ. What does the word 'type' mean?

1. A provision that was sufficient

In what five ways did Boaz provide for Ruth? and what do these tell us about what Jesus Christ has done for seekers?

Boaz Ruth to in his fields

Boaz Ruth as part of the

Boaz Ruth to satisfy her hunger

Boaz Ruth as one who was vulnerable

Boaz Ruth to to his fields

2. A provision that was better than expected

What were three ways that things went better for Ruth than she could have expected? and how do they show us what the person who really seeks God can expect?

Boaz invited Ruth

Boaz extended Ruth's and offered

Boaz insisted that Ruth

3. A provision that inspired devotion

How did Ruth respond to Boaz? And what does this teach us about how we should respond to Jesus?

Conclusion

The love story of Boaz and Ruth has a happy ending. What does the Bible say will happen when God begins a work in us?
