Introduction

Why is Naomi excited when Ruth gets home from gleaning?

1. Their lives could be transformed

What word sums up the transformation that could take place in the lives of Naomi and Ruth?

Why did their lives need to be transformed?

How is this a picture of what people need today?

2. Boaz could secure this transformation

What could Naomi and Ruth do to change their lives?

What words tell us why Boaz was able to make a difference?

What could a kinsman-redeemer do to make a difference?

Who can make a difference for people living today? And how can he do this?

Conclusion

How does the advice given to Ruth help us in our lives today?
