Introduction

How does the darkness of a mine illustrate what people's lives are like who do not believe in Christ?

1. The beginning of Christ's power in the Christian

How is someone first released from the domain of darkness?

What is the means by which this is made known?

What is the result of redemption?

2. The marks of Christ's power in the Christian

What three things will be characteristic of those who are experiencing Christ's power in their lives?

What do these fruits tell us about the person?

3. The progress of Christ's power in the Christian

In what ways does Christ's power continue to effect the person who experiences it?

Conclusion

How often should a person experience Christ's power in life?

How do we obtain Christ's power?
