Introduction

What danger do Christians face in their daily lives?

1. The people's priorities questioned

Why were the people not rebuilding the temple?

What attitude did this show they had?

2. Consider how things are

Who should consider their ways?

What were conditions like at the time of Haggai?

What might we find if we were to consider our own lives?

3. Consider how things should be

What should the people have been doing in Jerusalem?

What should be the priority for all Christians?

4. The people's plight explained

What was the link between the people's priority and their plight?

What connection is there between God's dealings with the Jews in Haggai's day, and his dealings with Christians today?

Conclusion

What challenge does this prophecy present to us today?
