Introduction

Is discouragement a common problem?

1. The reality of discouragement

What three things might have led to discouragement in the days of Haggai?

Why might Christians today be discouraged in the church?

2. The basis for encouragement

What four things did Haggai say to encourage the people?

How can Christians today be encouraged?

3. The call to perseverance

What three things did God call the people to do? and what do they mean for Christians today?

Conclusion

What do Christians need if they are to be encouraged to persevere in the work of building Christ's church?
